People & Soft Skills: Essential for Professional Success

In this specialization, learners gained essential knowledge and skills to develop “success skills” also known as soft skills. These skills give learners the ability to be successful in their professional life. After completing the six courses offered in this program, earners of this certificate show proficiency in collaborating effectively, delivering quality work, solving problems with creative thinking, interpersonal skills, and creating quality presentations. At the end of the specialization, learners completed a final quiz inspired by real world situations to demonstrate and apply their new knowledge of People skills.

This certificate attests to the learner’s completion of an online program delivered via Coursera. It does not constitute formal enrollment at any university or entity and does not itself grant academic credit, grades, or a degree. Institutions or organizations may, at their discretion, recognize this learning toward their own programs or credentials.
