Adham Medhat Elsaied

has successfully completed the online Specialization

Mastering C# and .NET Development

This certificate recognizes successful completion of the C# and .NET Development Specialization by Edureka. The holder demonstrated the ability to write object-oriented C# using collections, LINQ, and asynchronous methods, designed and secured REST APIs with ASP.NET Core and Entity Framework Core, and built interactive web interfaces with Blazor. The learner has containerized .NET applications with Docker, orchestrated multi-service stacks using .NET Aspire, instrumented them with OpenTelemetry, and deployed to Azure Container Apps through automated GitHub Actions pipelines.
